I think the advance by Govt is a first charge & is recoverable as an arrear of land revenue from the assets in his hands. See Ss 62 & 74; but

I think Govt can sue in a case where the Member
did not contest any loan but simply disconnected himself — and nothing adverted

fall; appeals are civil, & the Govt has the first charge
than claims all the

I am rather doubtful.

Office of the Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore
Camp Aradesahully 9th April 1898.

From
The Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore

To
The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Revenue & General Departt.

Sir,

I beg to bring to your notice that during my inspection of the Agricultural Banks, I have invariably found no accurate and authenticated record of the property owned by each member. Both in the interests of the Bank and also for the guidance of the Inspecting Officer, it is very essential that a copy of the property Statement, showing the valuation of each member as fixed by the Amildar should be kept in the Bank Office.

2. I would suggest the advisability of directing the submission of two copies of the property statement along with each proposal so that one copy may be sent by the Deputy Commr. to the Bank along with the duplicate copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the incorporation Certificate for being recorded.

I have the Honor to be,
Sir
Your most obedient Servant
M Thompson
Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore

Read:—

Letter No 355 dated 9th April 1898 from the Inspector of Agricultural Banks in Mysore, suggesting the advisability of directing the submission with each proposal for the establishment of an Agricultural Bank, of two copies of the statement showing the property owned by each member, so that one copy may be sent by the Deputy Commissioner to the Bank with the duplicate copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the incorporation Certificate, for being recorded, and stating that as no authenticated record of the property owned by each member of an Agricultural Bank, is kept, it is very essential in the interest of the Bank and for the guidan inspecting officer, that a copy of the property Statemen showing the valuation of eac number as fixed by the Ad dar, should be kept in the Bank office. (Print on Note
